Getting to Sorrento by Public Transportation

From Naples Capodichino Airport

Take the Curreri bus (6) from the Capodichino airport terminal directly to Sorrento. Buses run frequently in the summer months, and tickets can be purchased on board for EUR 10.

From Naples by Ferry

A fun and easy way to reach Sorrento is with the high speed ferry which departs from the Molo Beverello pier and reaches the port of Sorrento in 40 minutes.

Da Naples Central Train Station

The Circumvesuviana train (7) is located on the lower level of the station, where trains depart for Sorrento.

The ticket for Sorrento costs EUR 3.60, and trains depart every 20 minutes to make the hour-long trip. Circumvesuviana trains are often crowded and there is no luggage storage area.

The Beverello pier is in Piazza Municipio, which can be reached from the airport with the Alibus bus (5) (second stop, Piazza Municipio/Molo Beverello) and from the train station with the subway (line 1, Piazza Municipio stop).

The route does not run frequently and high speed ferry routes are suspended in case of rough seas.

For a stress-free arrival, we suggest booking a private transfer.
